(54) Title: PROTOZOAN RHOMBOID PROTEINS

(57) Abstract: Protozoan Rhomboid Proteins This invention relates to the identification of protozoan Rhomboid proteins that are involved in the invasive processes of protozoan pathogens, such as P. falciparum. Modulation of these Rhomboid proteins may thus be useful in treating protozoan pathogen infection. Methods and means relating to the modulation of protozoan Rhomboid proteins is provided herein.
